

I have never sent a complaint letter. I was one of the silent majority but anymore. I was so offended by the Super Bowl's half time, all of it. The sex, immorality, drugs, sexual innuendos, and even physical nudity on General TV is/was outrageous. What has become of American standards? Just a thought - What would other people in other countries think about us (America) now? Please do something about this atrocity. I was extremely offended.
